DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 1-20 and 33-59 are directed to non-statutory subject matter the language of the claims are directed merely to an abstract idea that has no limitation to a practical application which produces a concrete, useful, and tangible result because claims 1-20 and 33-59 recite computer program per se (see specification, software program 240).

Claims 21-32 are also directed to non-statutory subject matter because the Federal Circuit also recognizes that the fact that a nonstatutory method is carried out on a programmed computer does not make the process claims statutory. Grams, 888 F. 2d at 841, 12 USPQ2d at 1829 (claim 16 ruled nonstatutory even though it was a computer-implemented process).

2. Applicant's arguments filed 5/30/06 has been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues on page 20 that both Fed. Cir. cases applied to the term "generating an association". However, these two Fed. Cir. Cases do not consider a software process such as generating an association of any process a statutory subject matter especially when the claimed invention is silent about any tangible result that comes after the generating step.
